JAMES FOR GOVERNOR— GRAYOT FOR CONGRESSMAN

A Pretty Fight as Ever Seen in the Political Field May Be Awaiting Just Ahead.

The Livingston Democrat wants recognition, adequate and substantial, for the Gibraltar of Kentucky's Democracy. What the Eleventh district is to Republicanism, the First is to Democracy—a rock, a fortress and a deliverer. A district that can in a pinch give a solid 12,000 majority to free silver deserves the homage of old-time Democrats.

The Democrat proposes the Hon.
Ollie M. James for governor of the "good old State of Kentucky," and the Hon. John L. Grayot for congressman from the "old Gibraltar district." The Democrat then claps its wings and from barnyard height crows defiance at Beckhamism, Hagerism, or any other ism menacing the Gibraltar's frowning heights and beetling guns with assault.
"These are our boys," says the Democrat, "and if there lives the man or set of men (mark it well, Frankfort machine men) who oppose either, should they decide to make these races, they will have no smooth sailing."

Of Mr. James the Democrat declares: "Ollie M. James, the big congressman, the Kentuckian that he is, the orator that he is, and the Democrat that he is, would make Kentucky an ideal chief executive."

To Mr. Grayot the Livingston paper tenders a choice bouquet:

"John L. Grayot, Livingston county's favorite son, brainy and eloquent, would add more to the already famous First district in the lower house of congress."

Congressman James is, indeed, a credible representative of Kentucky's best sort of Democracy. As to the Hon. John L. Grayot, he is certainly an able lawyer and distinguished citizen, whose promotion would rejoice all lovers of real merit. But the Democratic fight is not ours.

The Frankfort machine will pass on the nominations just recited. Having already decided that the Hon. S. W.
Hager is to be the successor of Gov.
Beckham it will not, of course, entertain Congressman James' name for that office. Should Mr. James decide for the machine's benefit to retire from public life, the Hon. John L. Grayot is not the man the machine would like to see sent to congress from the Gibraltar.

But neither Mr. James nor Mr.
Grayot may seek to accommodate the machine by self-effacement, and as pretty a fight as ever seen in a Kentucky political field may be just ahead. —Louisville Herald.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if it is taken in time. My wife improved with the first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded.

THE PAPER THAT MERITS YOUR CONFIDENCE.

The Crittenden Record

Built up from the ground in eight months to an unusual prestige and standing, then unfortunately burned out absolutely, but it never missed an issue and today greets you brighter and better than ever. In fact it's the up-to-date Western Kentucky Newspaper.

That's the Record's record, the paper that asks for your patronage.

It contains all the best General News and all the Local News in Crittenden County, and remembers adjoining counties. It is read in the home everywhere.
If you are not a subscriber send in a dollar and become one now, only $1.00

CLUBBING RATES.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish you any of the following Daily Papers and THE CRITTENDEN RECORD at the

THE RECORD is now in its new and modern dress in which it arises from the ashes of the late fire. No paper in Western Kentucky is in a better position to fill your wants in the advertising or publicity line and none have a stronger or more substantial following. Call on THE RECORD, make your wants known and leave a few suggestions regarding your business to the publicity of its columns and note the results. If local and general news, together with a variety of other reading matter makes a paper popular THE RECORD certainly has all those features. If you want no other paper do not fail to send a Meeting of Bi-County Committee.

The meeting of the bi-county committee, composed of J. O. Gray, J. R.
Farris, J. R. Moreland, G. N. McGraw, F. M. Robinson, and T. M. George, all of Livingston county, and A. J. Bennet, of Crittenden county, was called at 1 p. m., January 25.

Crittenden county being represented by only one of their committee, it was motioned and seconded, at any rate, that a committee be appointed to circulate subscription papers in both counties for the purpose of seeing how much could be subscribed.

The following compose the committee of Livingston county: Hood Kennedy, Roy L. Threlkeld, R. F. Blakely and Oliver Lasher. And for Crittenden county, A. J. Bennett, Chas. Fox and J. F. Conger.

Any one wishing to subscribe will please make it known to see one of the committee.

In case of sufficient amount being subscribed, all share holders will be notified to meet on April 1 to organize.

JOHN R. FARRIS, Ch'm.

Notice.

The Greening Nursery Company, Monroe, Mich., one of the leading concerns in the United States, write us that they want a good, live agent in this section to solicit orders for their nursery stock. Experience not necessary. They offer good pay weekly, and furnish canvassing outfit free.

We advise any man or woman in our community, who is in a position to take orders for the above house, to write them for particulars immediately. 29-4t

Lame Back.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the part vigorously at each application. If this does not afford relief, bind on a piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm, and quick relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by Haynes & Taylor, the enterprising Druggists of Marion.

Carrie Nation Sells Building.

Carrie Nation has sold her two-story brick building known as "Harvest Home Mission," to wholesale liquor dealers for $10,000. As Mrs. Nation's office was moved out, barrels of liquor were moved in.

A Painless Cure of Curable Pain

Never resign yourself to suffer pain. Women's pains are curable. They are the sign of dangerous conditions of the female organs, which should be promptly attended to or dangerous results will follow.

Wine of Cardui

IT COMES TO WOMAN'S RELIEF

Whenever she suffers from any of woman's biting and weakening pains.
It not only compels the pains to stop, but it follows up and drives out the cause of the pains, which prevents them from coming back.

It makes you well. Try it.

Sold everywhere in $1.00 bottles.
